SPOTLIGHT ON.... PATSY ACERS

The mother of four girls, Patsy considers everything in life an adventure. One adventure was being the first cheerleader OU sent to lead yells at the Orange Bowl. Patsy spent ten years raising funds and convincing doctors to come to Oklahoma and participate in the development of the Dean A. McGee Eye Institute. As the first

Special Events Director for The American Cancer Society, her "Donate Your Car to the Cancer Drive" campaign won national awards. Passionate about financial education for women, Patsy trademarked and copyrighted the seminar called "Do you Really Want to be a Bag Lady?" and became a member of the Million Dollar Roundtable. She continues to help clients get their financial affairs in order.
