

Edmond Rotarian

Welcome Drew Edmondson

Attorney General of Oklahoma

Edmondson was elected Attorney General in 1994, and was re-elected in 1998, 2002 and 2006, winning more than 60 percent of the vote in his last two elections. He served as the 2002 - 2003 President of the National Association of Attorneys General. Before his election as Attorney General, Edmondson was elected, unopposed, to three consecutive terms as Muskogee County District Attorney in 1982, 1986 and 1990. He served as president of the Oklahoma District Attorneys Association and was selected as Outstanding District Attorney for the State of Oklahoma in 1985 and the Outstanding Death Penalty Prosecutor in the 9th and 10th Circuits. Edmondson served one term in the Oklahoma Legislature before entering the University of Tulsa School of Law in 1976. His undergraduate teaching degree is from Northeastern State University, Tahlequah, which he attended after graduating from Muskogee Central High School. Edmondson is a Navy veteran with a tour of duty in Vietnam. His wife, Linda, is a medical social worker. Their daughter Mary is an attorney and son Robert is a college professor.
